

How to get a Penn State e-mail account

1. Log on to <http://www.fps.psu.edu>.
2. Click on “Create an Account” on the top of the page.
3. Complete the information boxes about yourself (gender, name, address, etc. as indicated).
4. Create a password for your account.
5. Select a question to help you remember your password and type in the answer.
6. Click on the “Submit” button.

This is the account you will use to accept your housing contract when it is offered to you. Remember your account ID and password for your future use.
