Application for Visa Document for Intensive English Communication Program

Instructions: Please read entire form before answering questions. Type or print in ink. This form will help us determine if you meet the financial requirements necessary for making a formal application to Penn State.

Name in full as it appears on passport:

Mr. [] Ms. []

Family name	First name	Middle name
-------------	------------	-------------

Date	Signature
------	-----------

Country of birth	City of birth
------------------	---------------

Country of citizenship	Country of legal residence
------------------------	----------------------------

Most recent occupation in home country (If student, state educational level)

Date of birth (dd/mm/yyyy)	Age	Highest level of study

Check one category each in sections A, B, C, and D:

A. I will come to Penn State _____ from outside the United States _____ from within the United States (If currently a United States student, attach copies of the following: your visa, I-94, and I-20 or DS-2019; plus visa and I-94 of any dependents). If you are a dependent, include copy of principal's I-20 or DS-2019 and I-94. If you arrived in the United States with any visa other than an F-1 or J-1 or J-2, attach a copy of your visa and both sides of your I-94.

B. Document to be issued by Penn State:

I-20 (for F-1 Student visa) My primary source of funding is personal, from own funds, family, or friend. (F-1 dependents will be issued F-2 visas.)

DS-2019 (for J-1 Exchange Visitor/Student visa) My primary source of funding is United States or home-country government or an international organization. (J-1 dependents will be issued J-2 visas.)

DS-2019 (for J-1 Exchange Visitor/Student visa) I am on a university-to-university exchange program.

I do not need a Penn State document because:

My sponsoring agency will issue it.

I will remain on my _____ visa (attach photocopies of your visa and I-94).

If you are now F or J, you must request a new document from Penn State.

I am a permanent resident (attach copy of green card).

I have asked the IECF to postpone my admission until _____ semester. (If you have already received an I-20 or an DS-2019 from Penn State, it must be returned to the University. No additional documents for a later arrival date will be issued until the original documents are returned.)

C. Marital and Dependent Status If you do not provide financial support for dependents at time of admission, you must wait six months to apply for them to join you in the United States.

- I am not married.
- I am married but plan to come alone.
- I am married, and the following dependents will come with me:

FAMILY name, GIVEN name	Relationship to you	Birth date	Birth city	Birth country	Country of citizenship

Attach additional sheet, if necessary, with above information for each dependent.

D. Post program plans:

- Undergraduate degree program in United States
- Return to home country
- Graduate degree program in United States

Proof of Finances

Current financial guarantee required is $25,246 per year for Intensive English Communication Program students. Annual expenses may be more, depending on accompanying dependents. Itemized expense estimates are listed on the Fee page under Total Annual Financial Support. Estimated cost of the mandatory medical insurance is based on the annual premium for the Penn State Insurance Plan. These figures may change as more accurate estimates become available; your I-20 or DS-2019 will show estimates at date of issue. How long do you plan to study in the Intensive English Communication Program?

- One semester
